

Occupation Class incorporates the following defined occupation classifications:

1. Professional means a person is able to satisfy the White Collar definition and:
 - is earning in excess of $100,000 per annum; and
 - holds a tertiary qualification and be a member of a professional institute or registered by a government body; or
 - is a member of the executive leadership team of the employer.
2. White Collar means duties of a person's occupation are limited to professional, managerial, administrative, clerical, secretarial or similar 'white collar' tasks which do not involve manual work and are undertaken entirely (or at least 80%) within an office environment (excluding travel time from one office environment to another).
3. Light Blue means light-manual skilled workers and qualified tradespeople involved in non-hazardous industries doing light-manual work and includes occupations such as travelling sales person, carpenter, plumber and café owner.
4. Medium Blue Collar (Skilled) means qualified tradespeople not classified in the Light Blue occupation category who are wholly manual duties where a degree of skill and experience is required (e.g. sheet metal worker, mechanic).
5. Heavy Blue Collar (Unskilled) means heavy manual workers without qualification or working in higher risk occupations and includes occupations such as brick layer (qualified), farmer, inter-state bus driver, ware-house worker, carpet layer, labourer and removalist.
6. Hazardous means unskilled workers, those involved in hazardous or very heavy manual work, and/or specific occupations, as decided by the Insurer. Examples of Hazardous Occupation are professional divers, fisher-men, labourers, truck drivers, factory workers involved in highly repetitive unskilled duties, mining groups or drilling, exploration and explosive related industries, as well as any underground/underwater workers, forestry workers, workers at heights including riggers, scaffolders, roof workers, antenna erectors, seasonal workers/industries like fruit picking, prison services, firemen, police, ambulance drivers, paramedics, professional sportspeople or entertainers and pilots and crew of commercial airlines.
